BULLETIN 41: RULES FOR PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT PROCESS OF THE AIBC

MARCH 5, 2001

On March 5, 2001, AIBC Council approved the attached rules for a new professional conduct system which might under some circumstances provide a “consensual resolution” alternative to the full inquiry process. They are designed to provide greater speed, efficiency and economy as well as to reduce the stress and opportunity loss incurred by all parties in the handling of allegations of unprofessional conduct, while protecting the public interest.

This new edition of Bulletin 41 supersedes AIBC “DIRECTORS CHAIR 006: ALLEGATIONS OF UNPROFESSIONAL CONDUCT” and the prior edition of this Bulletin, both of which documents are now obsolete and discontinued.
